

Standards of Moral Conduct

All Faithful Family Homeschool Co-op members age eight and above must read (Or be read to), understand, and agree to abide by these standards. After you have discussed these thoroughly as a family, you may sign below.

Behavior: I agree to act like a gentleman or a lady and to treat others with respect, kindness, and encouragement in speech and action. I will refrain from any expression, gossip, or physical contact that may harm or make another feel uncomfortable. I will not bring anything to FFHC classes that is considered a weapon or could bring insult or injury to another member.

Dress and Appearance: All dress at FFHC should be respectful and modest in appearance.

Language: Language used at FFHC should be clean and intelligent- that which uplifts, encourages, and compliments others. The names of God and Jesus Christ should be used only in reverence. Profane, vulgar, or crude language or gestures are not allowed at FFHC.

Media: Offensive material such as movies, music, videos/ DVDs, books, magazines, pictures, and other media are not allowed at FFHC. This includes anything vulgar, immoral, violent, or pornographic.

Service to Our Organization: As members of FFHC we commit to serve our organization by participating in cleaning of the building, keeping our environment clean and orderly, keeping track of our own possessions, and being attentive to our family's needs. No food is allowed during class time unless a teacher provides it. (An exception can be made for those children with food allergies. Parents can bring alternative foods if it is prearranged with the teacher/ teachers.)

Outside Policy: No children should be outside/ on the playground without adult supervision.

*Our family agrees to follow the above standards of moral conduct to the best of our ability.
